Emergency Procedures

For life-threatening emergencies, contact local emergency services first, then report to property staff.

Emergency maintenance includes gas leaks, major water leaks, electrical faults, and blocked exits.

Report emergencies immediately through the complaints module and mark them as urgent.

Provide the unit number, the nature of the emergency, and your contact method so help arrives faster.